

Arts & Letters (Red)
 Enterprise (Green)
 Performing Arts (Purple)
 Public Service (Blue)
 Sports (Gray)

LAST	FIRST	CITY	DOB-DOD	SUMMARY
Addams	Charles	Westfield	1912-1988	Particularly known for his black humor, he was a cartoonist whose characters became known as The Addams Family and inspired two television shows, three movies, and a Broadway musical.
Crane	Stephen	Newark	1871-1900	A prolific author through his short life, he became known as one of the most innovative writers of his time. He won international acclaim in 1895 for his Civil War novel The Red Badge of Courage, which he wrote without having any battle experience.
Coben	Harlan	Ridgewood	1962-	An American author of mystery novels and thrillers. Both series of Coben's books are set in and around New York and New Jersey. More than 60 million books in print worldwide. Multiple No. 1 NY Times Bestsellers.
Evanovich	Janet	South River	1943-	The first person in her family to attend college, she studied art at Rutgers University and became a best selling author through her series of mysteries featuring the fictional character Stephanie Plum, a former lingerie seller from Trenton who becomes a bounty hunter. The novels in this series have been on the New York Times and Amazon bestseller lists.

Kassell	Paula	Dover	1917-2012	Kassell was an American feminist leader who founded New Directions for Women, the first national feminist news publication in the United States (headquartered in Westwood). Was one of the founders of the Women's Institute for Freedom of the Press and successfully pushed The New York Times to use the term "Ms." in reference to women.
Kilmer	Joyce	New Brunswick	1886-1918	An American journalist and poet, he is most famous for writing a short poem entitled "Trees" before he joined the National Guard and was killed by a sniper during World War I at age 31. Posthumously awarded the French Croix De Guerre and Purple Heart.
Lebowitz	Fran	Morristown	1950-	Author and public speaker known for her sardonic social commentary on American life, she has been called a modern-day Dorothy Parker.
Lindbergh	Anne Morrow	Englewood	1906-2001	The wife of Charles Lindberg, she was an acclaimed author and pioneering aviator. She was the basis of the character Sonia Armstrong in the Agatha Christie novel Murder on the Orient Express.
Martin	George R.R.	Bayonne	1948-	A novelist and short story writer, he is the author of the epic fantasy saga "A Song of Ice and Fire," the inspiration for the critically acclaimed HBO drama series Game of Thrones.
Myers	Walter Dean	Jersey City	1937-2014	An author of children's and young adult books, he won the Coretta Scott King Award for African-American authors five times. He wrote over 100 titles during his distinguished career. His 1988 novel "Fallen Angels" is one of the books most frequently challenged in the U.S. because of its adult language and its realistic depiction of the Vietnam War. Myers was the third U.S. National Ambassador for Young People's Literature, serving 2012 and 2013. He also sat on the Board of Advisors of the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators. His last written work, a few months before his death, was an essay entitled "Where are the People of Color in Children's Books?"

Nash, Jr.	John Forbes	Princeton	1928-2015	Mathematician who made fundamental contributions to game theory, differential geometry, and the study of partial differential equations. Nash's work has provided insight into the factors that govern chance and decision making inside complex systems found in daily life. His theories are used in economics, computing, evolutionary biology, artificial intelligence, accounting, computer science, games of skill, politics and military theory. Serving as a Senior Research Mathematician at Princeton University during the latter part of his life, he shared the 1994 Nobel Memorial Prize in Economic Sciences with game theorists Reinhard Selten and John Harsanyi. In 2015, he was awarded the Abel Prize for his work on nonlinear partial differential equations. Made his contributions while suffering from paranoid schizophrenia. His struggles with mental illness and recovery were the subject of Pulitzer-prize nominated book "A Beautiful Mind," by Sylvia Nasar, which was made into a 2001 movie starring Russell Crowe that won four Academy Awards, including Best Picture. On May 23, 2015, Nash and his wife, Alicia Nash, were killed in a car crash while riding in a taxi on the New Jersey Turnpike.
Osgood	Charles	Englewood	1933-	Radio and television commentator. Host of CBS News Sunday Morning since 1994. Radio show The Osgood File, has been broadcast on the CBS Radio Network and heard four times each weekday morning drive time on radio stations nationwide. Each three-minute Osgood File focuses on a single story, ranging from news of national importance to a whimsical human-interest vignette. Some of these he does in rhyme, which is why he is known as CBS's "Poet in Residence." Osgood anchored the first morning drive shift for WCBS after its conversion to an all-news format. Author of six books.
Price	George	Tenafly	1901-1995	One of the earliest cartoonists, he began drawing for The New Yorker magazine in 1929 and helped shape the look of the magazine in the 1930s. He contributed more than 1,200 cartoons, most of them filled with characters he said were based on people he knew growing up in Fort Lee. Price displayed a talent for both graphic innovation (many of his cartoons consisted of a single, unending, abstract line) and for a wit that combined the small issues of domestic life with a topical sensibility.
Segal	George	South Brunswick	1924-2000	An American painter and sculptor associated with the Pop Art movement. He was presented with the United States National Medal of Arts in 1999. Segal pioneered the use of plaster bandages for sculpting, in place of traditional casting techniques.
Septe	Moe	Roosevelt	1925-1997	Businessman and impresario who changed the face of the Jersey Shore music scene by bringing The Beach Boys, James Brown, The Rolling Stone, The Who and others to Convention Hall in Asbury Park.
Shahn	Ben	Roosevelt	1898-1969	Known as one of the great social realists he was a photographer and painter who often portrayed the hardships and social issues of everyday life. Remembered in New Jersey for painting a mural in Roosevelt depicting the history of the Jersey Homestead (name of the town before Roosevelt).

Stevens	Col. John III	Hoboken	1749-1838	Namesake of Stevens Institute of Technology. Bought the land upon which the college sits. Captain in Washington's army in the Revolutionary War. Early active supporter of steamboat navigation and owned a merchant fleet of steamboats.
Tice	George	Newark	1938-	Photographer best known for his meticulously crafted black and white prints in silver gelatin and platinum, as well as his books, which depict a broad range of American life, landscape, and urban environment, mostly photographed in his native New Jersey, where he has lived nearly all his life. He has published numerous photography books and his works have been displayed in galleries throughout the world. His images were also part of the stage set for the hit Broadway musical, "Jersey Boys."
Tosches	Nick	Newark	1949-	Novelist, journalist, biographer and poet. Rolling Stone magazine called his 1982 biography of Jerry Lee Lewis, Hellfire, the best rock biography ever written. He has written for Rolling Stone, Esquire and Vanity Fair, among other publications.
Walker	Dr. George Theophilus	Montclair	1922-	Pianist, teacher and composer. First African-American to win Nobel Prize (1996) for music for his piece, Lilacs. First African-American instrumentalist to perform at Town Hall in NYC. Inducted into the American Academy of Arts and Letters in 1999 and the American Classical Music Hall of Fame in 2000.

Enterprise

Bailey	Dr. Charles P	Asbury Park	1910-1993	A cardiac surgeon and pioneer in several heart surgery techniques and instruments, he grew up in central New Jersey and graduated from Rutgers University before earning his medical degree and demonstrating that the human heart could withstand manipulations which were previously considered impossible. Graced photo of Time Magazine in 1957: http://content.time.com/time/covers/0,16641,19570325,00.html
--------	---------------	-------------	-----------	--

Buckelew

Joseph

New Brunswick

1929-

Joseph Buckelew – August 16, 1929 Chairman of Conner Strong & Buckelew an insurance, risk management and employee benefits brokerage and consulting company since 1959. Formerly Chairman and Board member of Commerce Bancorp, Inc., Vice Chairman of Kimball Medical Center Foundation Board of Trustees, member of Barnabas Health Care System’s Board of Trustees, Chairman of the New Jersey Highway Authority, Chairman & Vice Chairman of the New Jersey Sports & Exposition Authority. Current Board member of the New Jersey Meadowlands Commission. Former owner and founder of Ocean Cablevision/Monmouth Cablevision, Interstate General Media (IGM), parent company of the Philadelphia Inquirer, the Philadelphia Daily News and Philly.com. Buckelew has served as Mayor, Police Commissioner and Township Committeeman of Lakewood. Freeholder on the Ocean County Board of Freeholders and a founding member of radio station WOBM. His honors include Distinguished Citizen Award from the Jersey Shore Council of the Boy Scouts of America, Good Scout Award from the Ocean County Council of the Boy Scouts of America, Silver Gull Award for Business Achievement from the Monmouth-Ocean Development Council and a Humanitarian Award from Ocean County College Foundation. Buckelew received a Doctor of Humane Letter honorary degree from Georgian Court University and a Doctor of Public Service honorary degree from Monmouth University.

Bourdain	Anthony	Leonia	1956-	Chef/author/tv personality. Former executive chef at renowned French restaurant, Brasserie Les Halles (NYC). Though Bourdain is no longer formally employed as a chef, he maintains a relationship with Les Halles in New York. He is widely known for his 2000 book "Kitchen Confidential: Adventures in the Culinary Underbelly," and in 2005 he began hosting the Travel Channel's culinary and cultural adventure programs "Anthony Bourdain: No Reservations" and "The Layover." In 2013, he joined CNN to host "Anthony Bourdain: Parts Unknown."
Burke	James E.	New Brunswick	1925-2012	Former CEO of Johnson & Johnson, he is credited with the growth of Johnson & Johnson to its current size and prominence after his crisis management skills during the 1982 Tylenol crisis. He was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom by President Clinton.
Dickenson	Fairleigh S.	Rutherford	1866-1948	A former Colonel, he became a businessman, founded Becton Dickinson and was a benefactor of the school that is now named for him, Fairleigh Dickinson University.
Forbes	Steve	Morristown	1947-	American publishing executive, who was twice a candidate for the nomination of the Republican Party for President of the United States. Forbes is the Editor-in-Chief of Forbes , a business magazine. Forbes was a Republican candidate in the 1996 <sup>[1]</sup> and 2000 Presidential primaries. Forbes is the son of longtime Forbes publisher Malcolm Forbes, and the grandson of that publication's founder, B.C. Forbes.

Hanson	Jon	Bernardsville	1936	Mr. Jon F. Hanson is the Founder of The Hampshire Companies and serves as its Chairman. Mr. Hanson has over 54 years of experience in the real estate industry. He is employed at Onsite Energy Corporation. He worked at M&amp;F Worldwide Corp. He serves as Chairman of Pascack Bancorp, Inc. He served as Chairman of the Board at Pascack Community Bank. He has been Chairman of Corporate Advisory Council at Lakeland Bancorp Inc. since January 7, 2016. Mr. Hanson served as the Chairman of Healthsouth Corp., from October 1, 2005 to May 1, 2014. He served as Vice Chairman of Pascack Bancorp, Inc. He serves as Director of Prudential Insurance Company of America at The Prudential Variable Contract Real Property Partnership. Mr. Hanson serves as a Member of the Board of Advisors at NYU School of Law Center for Real Estate. He has been Director of The Prudential Insurance Company of America at The Prudential Variable Contract Real Property Account since 1991. He has been Director of United Water Resources, Inc. since 1986. Mr. Hanson serves as a Director of Gemini Industries Inc., Yankee Global Enterprises, Yankee Global Enterprises and the Yankee Entertainment and Sports Network LLC (YES Network). He was employed at Orange and Rockland Utilities, Inc. He serves as a Member of Board of Advisors at Seavest, Inc. He serves as Trustee of The Prudential Foundation. He served as an Independent Director of Healthsouth Corp. from September 17, 2002 to May 1, 2014. He served as Director of CD&amp;L Inc. from 1997 to June 7, 2006. He served as a Director of Prudential Insurance Company of America, Investment Manager of Prudential Financial, Inc. since April 1991. Mr. Hanson served as a Director of Prudential Financial Inc., from January 2001 to May 2011 and served as its Lead Director from 2009 to 2014. He served as a Director of Wickes Inc. He served as a Director of Hackensack University Medical Center for over 18 years and serves as its Honorary Member of Board of Governors. From 1994 to 2005, Mr. Hanson served as Chairman of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame, Inc. for 12 years. Mr. Hanson served as the Chairman and Commissioner of the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority from 1982 to 1994. He has a B.A. degree from the Colgate University.
Kellog	Peter	Summit	1942	American businessman and philanthropist with a net worth estimated by Forbes at around $3.4 billion.

Kinsey	Alfred	Hoboken	1894-1956	A biologist, professor of entomology, zoology and sexologist, he founded the Institute for Sex Research at Indiana University. Kinsey's works – Sexual Behavior in the Human Male and Sexual Behavior in the Human Female - are jointly known as the Kinsey Reports. Kinsey's research on all as internationally.
Parker	Alice H.	Morristown	1865-unknown	An African-American innovator who revolutionized the modern home heating system. Her patented system gave birth to the thermostat and the familiar forced air furnaces in most homes today, replacing what was then the most common method for heating – cutting and burning wood in fireplaces or stoves
Parsonnet	Dr. Victor	Newark	1924-	Performed the first coronary bypass surgery in New Jersey and was the first surgeon in New Jersey to implant a permanent pacemaker (1961) and complete a heart transplant (1985). Former chairman and current Chairman Emeritus of New Jersey Symphony Orchestra.
Powell Jobs	Laurene	West Milford	1963	American businesswoman, philanthropist and founder of Emerson Collective, which advocates for policies concerning education and immigration reform, social justice and environmental conservation. She is also co-founder and president of the Board of College Track, which prepares disadvantaged high school students for college.
Roebing	Mary G.	Trenton	1905-1994	Broke the glass ceiling for women in business in general and in the banking and financial services industry specifically. She was the first woman to serve as president of a major US bank, the Trenton Trust. She was the first female Governor of the American Stock Exchange. Second husband was great-grandson of John Roebing.

Rowan	Henry	Trenton	1923-	Rowan designed and built the first induction furnace and is the namesake of Rowan University. He built his first induction furnace in his home's garage in 1953 with the help of his wife. He founded Inductotherm Industries Inc. which has since grown to include 80 subsidiaries throughout North America, South America, Europe, India, Asia and Australia. In spring 1992, Rowan and his wife Betty Rowan pledged $100 million to Glassboro State College, which has been renamed Rowan University in his honor. At the time it was the largest gift to a public college in the history of higher education. .
Vail	Theodore Newton	Morristown	1845-1920	Considered the Father of the telephone era; he led AT&T to build coast-to-coast transmission cables and served as company president from 1885-1888. He also founded the Bell Telephone Laboratories and made the telephone a universal service. Cousin of Alfred Vail.
Volcker	Paul	Teaneck	1927-	Born in Cape May, Volker graduated from Teaneck High School and Princeton University to become a leading economist and Chairman of the Federal Reserve under Presidents Carter and Reagan.
Waksman	Selman	New Brunswick	1888-1973	Known as the "Father of Antibiotics," this Russian immigrant was a professor of biochemistry and microbiology at Rutgers University for four decades, where his work led his team to the discovery of over 20 antibiotics. He is credited with coining the phrase antibiotics. A former President of the American Society of Microbiology, he won the 1952 Nobel Peace Prize in Physiology or Medicine for his discovery of streptomycin, the first antibiotic effective against tuberculosis.
Washington	Sarah Spencer	Atlantic City	1889-1953	One of the most celebrated business executives in the black community, she founded Apex News & Hair Company and Apex Rest for the elderly. She also founded the Apex Gold Club in Galloway, one of the first African-American-owned golf courses in the nation. Her legacy is the booming industry of black hair salons and beauty products she helped create.

Watson Sr.	Thomas J.	Short Hills	1874-1956	Chairman and CEO of IBM from 1914-1956. Watson developed IBM's distinctive management style and corporate culture, and turned the company into a highly-effective selling organization, based largely on punched card tabulating machines. A leading self-made industrialist, he was one of the richest men of his time and was called the world's greatest salesman when he died in 1956.
------------	-----------	-------------	-----------	--

White	Tim	Fort Lee	1956-	Timothy White is one of the world's most sought-after celebrity photographers. For over thirty years he has captured the intimate and playful sides of legendary actors as well as the innocence of up and comers. He has shot photography for some of the most recognizable movie posters of our time, the covers of countless high-profile publications, and imagery for an extraordinary and expansive roster of musicians.
-------	-----	----------	-------	--

Performing Arts

Benson	George	Englewood	1943-	A child prodigy, he began his professional career at the age of 21 as a jazz guitarist but is also known as a pop, R&B and scat singer. Came to prominence in the 1960s. A multi-Grammy award winning musician, his 1976 album "Breezin" hit No. 1 on the Billboard pop, jazz and R&B charts and sold three million copies.
Clinton	George	Plainfield	1941-	is an American singer, songwriter, bandleader, and record producer. His band Parliament-Funkadelic (which recorded under the names Parliament and Funkadelic) developed a form of funk music during the 1970s and early 1980s that he termed P-Funk. He launched a solo career in 1981. He is regarded, along with James Brown and Sly Stone, as one of the foremost innovators of funk music. He was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1997, alongside 15 other members of Parliament-Funkadelic.

Cassidy	David	West Orange	1950-	Actor, singer, songwriter, and musician best known for his role as Keith on the 1970's hit show The Partridge Family . He was a celebrated teen idol who still performs today.
Colbert	Stephen	Montclair	1964-	A political satirist, actor, writer, comedian, and television host, he hosts the Late Show with Stephen Colbert on CBS (taking over when David Letterman retired). This followed his wildly successful run as the host of Comedy Central's satirical political talk show, The Colbert Report , which won 9 Primetime Emmy Awards. Previously, he was known for his role as a correspondent on Comedy Central's The Daily Show .
Cruise	Tom	Glen Ridge	1962-	An actor whose career has spanned over two decades and more than three dozen feature films, he has been nominated for three Academy Awards ( Born on the Fourth of July , Jerry Maguire and Magnolia ) and won three Golden Globes ( Born on the Fourth of July , Jerry Maguire , and Magnolia ). His films have earned in excess of $8 billion worldwide.
Dinklage	Peter	Morristown and Mendham	1969-	An actor born with achondroplasia, a common form of dwarfism, he portrays Tyrion Lannister in HBO's hit drama series Game of Thrones , for which he won a Best Supporting Actor Emmy and a Golden Globe in 2011. In 2015, also for Game of Thrones , he won a Primetime Emmy Award for Outstanding Supporting Actor in a Drama Series. His breakout role came in 2003's "The Station Agent"
Fagan	Donald	Passaic	1948-	Co-founder, lead singer and principal songwriter for the legendary 70s rock band Steely Dan , which has sold more than 40 million albums worldwide. Also has performed and released albums as a solo artist. Steely Dan continues to perform today.
The Four Seasons	Frankie Valli, Bob Gaudio, Tommy DeVito &	Belleville	1960-	Frankie Valli, Bob Gaudio, Tommy DeVito and Nick Massi became one of the most popular rock groups in the world before the Beatles and are the subject of the smash Broadway hit "Jersey Boys" Hits include "Sherry," "Big Girls Don't Cry" and "December, 1963 (Oh What a Night)."

	Nick Massi
Gaynor	Gloria	Newark	1949-	Singer who is best known for her No. 1 disco smash single, "I will Survive" as well as several other top ten recordings – introduced into Dance Music Hall of Fame and named American Diabetes Association Honorary Spokesperson in 2008.
Harris	Ed	Engelwood and Tenafly	1950-	American actor, producer, director, and screenwriter. He is known for his performances in films such as The Right Stuff (1983), The Abyss (1989), Glengarry Glen Ross (1992), Apollo 13 (1995), Nixon (1995), The Rock (1996), Absolute Power (1997), A Beautiful Mind (2001), Enemy at the Gates (2001), Radio (2003), A History of Violence (2005), Gone Baby Gone (2007), The Way Back (2010), Man on a Ledge (2012), Gravity (2013), Snowpiercer (2013), and Run All Night (2015). Harris currently stars in the HBO sci-fi drama series Westworld .
Harry	Deborah	Hawthorne	1945-	Hawthorne native and Centenary College (Hackettstown) graduate who became lead singer for legendary new wave/punk band Blondie (No. 1 singles "Call Me", "The Tide is Hide", "Rapture", and "Heart of Glass"). Blondie was inducted into Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2006.
Holm	Celeste	Schooley's Mountain	1917- 2012	Academy Award winning actress for "Gentlemen's Agreement", she has starred in "Come to the Stable," "All About Eve," and the musical "Oklahoma!"
Houston	Cissy	Newark	1933-	Grammy award winning gospel and soul singer who began singing backup for Elvis, Aretha Franklin and others before becoming a star with Sweet Inspirations. Mother of Whitney Houston and aunt of Dionne Warwick.

Lane	Nathan	Jersey City	1956-	A veteran stage and screen actor, he is best known for his work in the movies The Lion King , The Birdcage and Stuart Little and the Broadway Productions of Guys and Dolls and the Producers . Has won several Tony and Golden Globe awards.
Nelson	Ozzie & Ricky	Jersey City and Ridgefield Park & Teaneck/Tenafly/Englewood	1906-1975 1940-1985	A band leader and television actor, producer and director, Nelson created and starred in the radion (1944-54) and television (1952-73) versions of "The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet," a series with his wife Harriet and two sons David and Ricky Nelson, the latter of which became a popular singer-songwriter. His grandchildren include actress Tracy Nelson and musicians Matthew and Gunnar Nelson. Singer, songwriter, instrumentalist and actor who achieved fame at an early age and had more than 50 songs in the Billboard Hot 100 singles chart form 1957-1973, including "Poor Little Fool" which holds the distinction of being the first No. 1 song on then-newly created Hot 100 chart. Inducted posthumously into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1987. Died in plane crash in 1985.
Smith	Patti	Pittman/Deptford	1946	American singer-songwriter, poet, and visual artist who became an influential component of the New York City punk rock movement with Horses . <sup>[1]</sup>
The Smithereens		Carteret	1980-	Pat DiNizio, Jim Babjak, Dennis Diken and Mike Mesaros formed The Smithereens in 1980 and won a national following with their blend of 1960's influenced songs with 1980's alternative Severo Journacion replaced Mesaro a few years ago. Most popular songs are "Blood and Roses" and "Behind the Wall of Sleep."
Snow	Phoebe	Teaneck	1950-2001	Phoebe Snow (born Phoebe Ann Laub ; July 17, 1950 <sup>[1][2]</sup> – April 26, 2011 <sup>[1]</sup> ) was an American singer, songwriter, and guitarist, best known for her 1975 song "Poetry Man". She was described by The New York Times as a "contralto grounded in a bluesy growl and capable of sweeping over four octaves." <sup>[1]</sup>

Van Zandt	Steven	Middletown	1950-	Steven Van Zandt (born November 22, 1950) is an American musician, songwriter, arranger, record producer, actor, and radio disc jockey, who frequently goes by the stage names Little Steven or Miami Steve . He is a member of Bruce Springsteen's E Street Band, in which he plays guitar and mandolin. He has also acted in television dramas such as The Sopranos (1999–2007) and Lilyhammer (2012–2014). Van Zandt also had his own solo band called Little Steven and The Disciples of Soul in the 1980s. In 2014, Van Zandt was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame as a member of the E Street Band.
-----------	--------	------------	-------	--

Wilson	Flip	Jersey City	1933-1998	Singer, songwriter, instrumentalist and actor who achieved fame at an early age and had more than 50 songs in the Billboard Hot 100 singles chart form 1957-1973, including "Poor Little Fool" which holds the distinction of being the first No. 1 song on then-newly created Hot 100 chart. Inducted posthumously into Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1987. Died in plane crash in 1985.
--------	------	-------------	-----------	---

Public Service

Apgar	Dr. Virginia	Westfield	1900-1974	She was a leader in the fields of anesthesiology and teratology (study of abnormalities of physiological development), and introduced obstetrical considerations to the established field of neonatology. Best known to the general public as the inventor of the Apgar score, a way to quickly assess the health of newborn children immediately after birth.
-------	--------------	-----------	-----------	--

Ashby	William	Newark	1889-1991	Civil rights fighter for more than nine decades. In 1917 he became New Jersey's first African-American social worker. In the years after World War I, he was instrumental in founding the Newark Welfare Federation and Community Chest, forerunner to the United Way, and the Fuld Neighborhood House. More than 50 years later, he was a co-founder of the Newark Preservation and Landmarks Committee. William Ashby Day. The New Jersey Department of Community Affairs in 1987 named its new headquarters in Trenton the William Ashby building.
-------	---------	--------	-----------	---

Boudinot	Elijah	Elizabeth	1740-1821	A lawyer and statesman who was a New Jersey delegate to the Continental Congress and served as President of Congress from 1782 to 1783. He was elected as a U.S. Congressman for New Jersey following the American Revolutionary War. He was appointed by President George Washington as Director of the United States Mint, serving from 1795 until 1805.
Brennan	John O.	North Bergen	1955-	Appointed Director of the CIA by President Obama in He has served as chief counterterrorism advisor to President Obama. His 25 years with the CIA included work as a Near East and South Asia analyst, as station chief in Saudi Arabia, and as director of the National Counterterrorism Center.
Carter	Robert Lee	Newark	1917-2012	Civil rights activist and U.S. District Judge who was a legal assistant to future Supreme Court Judge Thurgood Marshall. Former Chief Counsel of the NAACP. Co-founder of the National Conference of Black Lawyers.
Coleman Jr.	James H.	Scotch Plains	1937-	In 1994, became first African-American New Jersey Supreme Court Justice and served until 2003. Member, Board of Trustees of University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey.
Dix	Dorothea Lynde	Morris Plains/ Trenton	1802-1887	Activist for the poor and mentally ill who, through a vigorous program of lobbying state legislatures and the United States Congress, created the first generation of American psychiatric institutions During the Civil War, she served as Superintendent of Army Nurses.
Driscoll	Alfred	Haddonfield	1902-1975	Governor of New Jersey from 1947-1954 and was a proponent for the New Jersey Turnpike and the Garden State Parkway. From the time of their construction, these two major transportation links would transform the agrarian "Garden State" into the most densely populated state in the union. The Driscoll Bridge on the Garden State Parkway across the Raritan River was named in his honor. Driscoll served as a delegate to the Republican National Convention from New Jersey in 1948 and 1952, and he was considered for the vice-presidential nomination at the 1952 convention.

Fenwick	Millicent	Bernardsville, NJ	1910-1992	An American fashion editor, politician and diplomat. A four-term Republican member of the United States House of Representatives from New Jersey, she entered politics late in life and was renowned for her energy and colorful enthusiasm. She was regarded as a moderate and progressive within her party and was outspoken in favor of civil rights and the women's movement. .
Freeh	Louis	Jersey City	1950-	Freeh began his career as an agent of the FBI, and was later an assistant United States Attorney and a United States district court judge, the position he held at the time of his appointment as FBI director. He is now a lawyer and consultant in the private sector.
Hughes	Richard J.	Florence Township	1909-1992	Served as the 45th Governor of New Jersey from 1962 to 1970, and as Chief Justice of the New Jersey Supreme Court from 1973–1979. Hughes is the only person to have served New Jersey as both Governor and Chief Justice. Also was a federal prosecutor at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey, county court judge from 1948–1952, and a superior court judge from 1952–1961. In his two terms as governor he expanded state services for the disabled improved education and created the state's county college system.
Livingston	William	Elizabeth/ Parsippany	1723-1790	Governor of New Jersey from 1776 until his death in 1790. Led the NJ delegation to the Constitutional Convention in 1787 and signed the Constitution. Co-founder in 1752 of the Independent Reflector, New York's first serial non-newspaper publication and the only one being published in British North America at the time. A brigadier general of the New Jersey Militia during the Revolutionary War. Namesake of town of Livingston and Livingston campus of Rutgers University.

Maass	Clara	East Orange	1876-1901	An American nurse who died as a result of volunteering for medical experiments to study yellow fever, which led to a ban on using humans for medical experiments. In 1895, she became one of the first graduates of Newark German Hospital's Christina Trefz Training School for Nurses. Volunteered as a contract nurse for the United States Army during the Spanish--American War. Namesake of Clara Maas Medical Center in Belleville.
McClellan	George	Trenton/ West Orange	1826-1885	A major general for the Union during the American Civil War and the Democratic presidential nominee in 1864, who later served as Governor of New Jersey. He organized the famous Army of the Potomac and served briefly (November 1861 to March 1862) as the general-in-chief of the Union Army. Served as the 24th Governor of New Jersey from 1878 to 1881.
McCormick	Richard P.	Tenafly/ New Brunswick	1916-2006	Historian, University Professor of History, administrator and professor emeritus at Rutgers University in New Brunswick. President of New Jersey Historical Society. Internationally recognized for his expertise in New Jersey and early American political history.
Parker	Nellie Morrow	Hackensack	1902-1998	First African American school teacher in Bergen County, teaching 5th and 6th grades in Hackensack. Nellie K. Parker Elementary School in Hackensack, New Jersey is named after her. During her early years of teaching she and her family were subject to racism from the Ku Klux Klan and other organizations.
Paterson	William	Somerset/ Princeton	1745-1806	Second Governor (1790-1793). and first Attorney General (1776-1783). Signed Constitution. U.S. senator from NJ (1789--90). Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court. He was selected as Somerset County, New Jersey delegate for the first three provincial congresses of New Jersey, where, as secretary, he recorded the 1776 New Jersey State Constitution. City of Paterson and William Paterson University (Wayne) are named after him.

Sadowski	Joseph J.	Perth Amboy	1917-1944	United States Army sergeant and a recipient of the United States military's highest decoration for valor—the Medal of Honor—for his actions in France during World War II. In September 14, 1944 was serving as a Sergeant in Company A, 37th Tank Battalion, 4th Armored Division. On that day, in Valhey, France, Sadowski's tank was disabled by enemy fire. He and his crew dismounted the vehicle, except for one man who was trapped inside the burning tank. Despite intense enemy fire, Sadowski returned to the tank and attempted to rescue the crewman, but was killed before he could do so. For his actions, he was posthumously awarded the Medal of Honor seven months later, on April 23, 1945.
Scalia	Antonin	Trenton	1936-	Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. As the longest-serving justice currently on the Court, Scalia is the Senior Associate Justice. Appointed to the Court by President Ronald Reagan in 1986, Scalia has been described as the intellectual anchor for the originalist and textualist position in the Court's conservative wing.
Stockton	Richard	Princeton	1730-1781	Signer of Declaration of Independence. Associate justice of the state supreme court 1774-1776. Member of the Continental Congress in 1776. Served as Trusee for College of New Jersey (now Princeton) for 26 years. He was consulted on the state of American affairs by such notable men as the Marquis of Rockingham with whom he spent a week at his country estate. He met with Edmund Burke, the Earl of Chatham, and many other distinguished members of Parliament who were friendly to the American colonies. Namesake of Stockton University in Galloway.

Sports

Attles	Al	Newark	1936-	Former professional basketball player and coach best known for his longtime association with the Golden State Warriors. Pro career 1960-1971. With Philadelphia Warriors - On March 2, 1962 he was the team's second-leading scorer with 17 points on the night Wilt Chamberlain scored 100 points. He reached two NBA Finals with the Warriors (losing both series. One of the first African-American coaches in the NBA, he led the Warriors to the 1975 NBA Title.
Barry	Rick	Roselle Park	1944-	Named one of the 50 Greatest Players in history by the NBA in 1996, Barry is the only player to lead the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), ABA and NBA in scoring for an individual season. Won 1975 NBA Title with Golden State Warriors and named Finals MVP. His 30.5 points-per-game average in the ABA stands as the highest career total for a player in any professional basketball league. In 1987, Barry was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. He is the father of former NBA players Brent Barry and Jon Barry. NBA Career: 1965-1980. Won NBA Rookie of the Year and 1967 All Star Game MVP.
Braddock	James	North Bergen	1905-1974	Heavyweight boxing champion from 1935-1937. Known for his comeback from a floundering career, he was given the nickname the "Cinderella Man" and shocked the boxing world by defeating then-champion Max Baer as a 10 to 1 underdog at Madison Square Garden in 1935. With his family in poverty during the Great Depression, Braddock had to give up boxing for a time and worked as a longshoreman. The 2005 film, "Cinderella Man" tells his story with Russell Crowe starring in the title role.
Button	Dick	Englewood	1929-	Olympic (1948, 1952) and five-time World Champion figure skater. Longtime figure skating TV analyst. Button is credited as having been the first skater to successfully land the double axel jump in competition in 1948, as well as the first triple jump of any kind – a triple loop – in 1952. He also invented the flying camel spin, which was originally known as the "Button Camel."

Carson	Harry	Franklin Lakes	1953	Harold Donald Carson (born November 26, 1953) is a former American football inside linebacker who played his entire professional career for the New York Giants of the National Football League (NFL). Carson was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2006.
Cooney	Gerry	Fanwood	1956	American former professional boxer who competed from 1977 to 1990. Despite his relative inexperience, Cooney's exciting wins and size, aided by expert promotion, gained him a lucrative bout with world heavyweight champion Larry Holmes in 1982. Cooney performed credibly before his corner retired him in round 13, and was regarded as having made a brave and determined effort. The view of him as tactically naive in defense was reinforced when former light heavyweight champion Michael Spinks stopped Cooney in five rounds in 1987. In his final bout, Cooney demonstrated his exceptionally hard punching power by staggering the powerful George Foreman, but was unable to capitalize on it.
Garrett	Jason	Spring Lake	1966	American football head coach of the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League (NFL). Garrett was the offensive coordinator and assistant head coach of the Cowboys before being promoted to interim head coach after the firing of Wade Phillips on November 8, 2010. He is a former professional American football quarterback in the National Football League for the Dallas Cowboys, New York Giants, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Miami Dolphins. He played college football at Princeton University

Irvin	Monte	Orange	1919-	Became one of the earliest African-American MLB players when he signed with the NY Giants in 1949, two years after Jackie Robinson broke the color barrier. Outfielder, won World Series with Giants in 1954 - also played with NY Giants and Chicago Cubs. Inducted into Baseball Hall of Fame in 1973. As of May 2015, Irvin is the oldest living former Negro Leagues player, New York Giant, and Chicago Cub. He lives in a retirement community in Houston.
Izenberg	Jerry	?	1930-	Sports journalist with the The Newark Star-Ledger in Newark, New Jersey. His career with The Star-Ledger began in 1951 while he was still a student at Rutgers University, Newark, but was interrupted for several years during which he served in the Korean War. Izenberg has covered many memorable sporting events and figures of the late Twentieth century, including Sonny Werblin's ownership of the New York Jets, the boxing career of Muhammad Ali, and the Loma Prieta earthquake which interrupted the 1989 World Series.
Leiter	Al	Toms River/ Berkeley Township	1965-	Pitched 19 years in the Major Leagues for four teams, including the Yankees and Mets. Won three World Series, with Toronto Blue Jays in 1992 and 1993; with Florida Marlins in 1997. Two-time all star. Threw no hitter with Marlins in 1996. Part of Mets team that lost World Series to the Yankees in 2000.
Lloyd	Carli	Delran	1982-	American professional soccer midfielder who currently plays for the Houston Dash in the National Women's Soccer League (NWSL) and the United States women's national soccer team. She is a FIFA Women's World Cup winner and two-time Olympic gold medalist. Women's World Cup. She has represented the United States at three FIFA Women's World Cup tournaments: the 2007 FIFA Women's World Cup, in which she helped the U.S. win bronze; the 2011 FIFA Women's World Cup, in which the U.S. won silver; and the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup, where Lloyd scored a hat trick in the final in captaining the U.S. to its third title.

McMullen	John	Jersey City/ Montclair	1918-2005	In 1982 he bought the Colorado Rockies hockey team and moved them to New Jersey, where they became the New Jersey Devils. He owned the Devils from 1982 until 2000, during which time the Devils won the 1995 and 2000 Stanley Cups. He also owned baseball's Houston Astros from 1979 to 1993. After taking over the team he promptly signed strikeout king Nolan Ryan to baseball's first $1 million free agent contract. Prior to owning sports teams he was a American naval architect, businessman, and marine engineer. McMullen is commemorated in the U.S. Naval Academy's McMullen Hockey Arena, the Academy's biennial McMullen Naval History Symposium, and the McMullen Seapower Fellowship and Keynote McMullen Seapower Lecture.
Mulchay	Robert E.	Millburn/ Mendham/ Basking Ridge	1932-	Athletic Director at Rutgers University 1998-2008. Prior to that he was President & CEO of NJSEA from 1979 to 1998. Former Mayor of Mendham, head of State Department of Corrections and chief of staff to Gov. Brendan Byrne.
Nantz	James William	Colts Neck	1959	American sportscaster, who has worked on telecasts of the National Football League (NFL), National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I men's basketball and the PGA Tour for CBS Sports since the 1990s. He has been the play-by-play announcer on CBS' top NFL team since 2004.
Reed	Willis	South Orange	1942-	He spent his entire professional playing career (1964–1974) with the New York Knicks. In 1982, Reed, a center, was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. In 1996, he was voted one of the "50 Greatest Players in NBA History". Won NBA Championships in 1970 and 1973 and was finals MVP. Known for his heroic effort in Game 7 of 1970 NBA Finals when he limped onto the court and played with a severe thigh injury. Coached the New Jersey Nets and later became their General Manager and Vice President of Basketball Operations (1989 to 1996). As Senior Vice President of Basketball, he helped lead them to the NBA Finals in 2002 and 2003.
Simms	Phil	Franklin Lakes	1954-	New York Giants star quarterback and MVP of Super Bowl XXI, in which he led the Giants to a victory over the Denver Broncos following the 1986 season. He was also the NFL League MVP for 1986. Also a member of the Giants Super Bowl XXI winning team which defeated the Buffalo Bills after the 1990 season. Spent entire 14-year career with the Giants. His #11 is retired by the Giants and he is a member of the Giants' Ring of Honor.

Slaney	Mary Decker	Bunnvale	1958-	Former track athlete who won gold medals in the 1500 meters and 3000 meters at the 1983 World Championships, and was the world record holder in the mile, 5000 meters and 10,000 meters. In total, she set 17 official and unofficial world records, including being the first woman in history to run inside 4:20 for the mile. She also set 36 US national records at distances ranging from 800 meters to 10,000 meters, and has held the US record in the mile, 2000 meters and 3000 meters since the early 1980s, while her 1500 meters record stood for 32 years. Competed in 1984 Olympics, where she was heavily favored to win a gold medal in the 3000 meters run. In the final, she collided with Zola Budd of Great Britain, fell and was unable to complete the race.
Stern	David	Teaneck	1942-	Commissioner of the National Basketball Association for 30 years (1984-2014). Credited with dramatically increasing the popularity and revenues of the NBA. During his tenure six franchises relocated, seven teams were added, and the WNBA was formed. He has served on the Rutgers University Board of Overseers and is a Chair Emeritus of the Board of Trustees of Columbia University. He is also a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.
Tagliabue	Paul	Jersey City	1940-	NFL Commissioner 1989-2006. During his tenure, the league expanded from 28 teams to 32 teams and four teams relocated. He moved the 1993 Super Bowl from Arizona to California after Arizona voted not to establish a Martin Luther King state holiday. Subsequently, Tagliabue moved the Super Bowl to Pasadena. Played a large role in the return of the Saints to New Orleans after the disruption of their 2005 season in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina. Tagliabue is credited with convincing Saints owner Tom Benson to abandon any effort to move the team to San Antonio and with making the Saints' return to Louisiana a league priority.

Werblin	Paul "Sonny"	East Rutherford	1910-1991	Entertainment industry executive and sports impresario who was an owner of the New York Jets, Chairman of Madison Square Garden, and built and ran the Meadowlands Sports Complex from 1971-1977. When Werblin bought the New York Titans in 1963 he changed the team's name to the Jets. His biggest coup came in 1965, when for $400,000 he signed University of Alabama quarterback Joe Namath, who had been drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals. He was bought out of his Jets ownership in 1968.
---------	--------------	-----------------	-----------	---

Arts & Letters (Red)

Enterprise (Green)

Performing Arts (Purple)

Public Service (Blue)

Sports (Gray)